GRAND JURY INDICTS WALTON OF OKLAHOMA

CHARGE DIVERSION OF STATE FUNDS AND 2 MORE COUNTS

CLAIM HE ILLEGALLY PREVENTED ATTEMPTED MEETING OF STATE LEGISLATURE

HEALTH COMMISSIONER AND GOVERNOR'S FORMER CHAUFFEUR ALSO INDICTED

(By United Press)

Oklahoma City, Oklo., Nov. 23.—J. C. Walton, former governor of Oklahoma, was indicted today by a county grand jury on charges of diversion of state funds, illegal prevention of an attempted meeting of the state legislature and attempts to intimidate an officer.

The former governor was accused on seven counts, six of which were filed in district court and the seventh in the county court.

Dr. A. E. Davenport of the health commission and T. P. Edwards, formerly Walton's chauffeur, were indicted jointly with Walton.

Bonds for Walton were set at $6,000 in district court and $750 in the county court. He was prepared to give bond. Bonds for Edwards and Davenport were set at $1,000 each.

SENATOR IN QUANDARY WHETHER TO TAKE DESK ON DEMOCRAT OR G. O. P. SIDE

Washington, Nov. 23. — Senator Magnus Johnson spent most of the forenoon trying to make up his mind whether he would sit on the republican or democratic side of the senate. The Minnesota Senator explained that he must have a place near the presiding officer because he is nearsighted and insists that even if he should take his seat on the democratic side it would not indicate that he had given up any of his independent proclivities.

Senator Johnson had a conference with Senator Charles Curtis, republican whip, but did not decide whether he would go into the republican conference. Considerable pressure is being brought to bear upon him to attend the Ford conference at Detroit, but the Minnesota senator is withholding his decision on that also.

"I have said," he explained, "that if either party nominates a progressive there will be no need of a third party, but it would seem likely that a progressive will not be nominated by either side. Under these circumstances I think we ought to have a third party ticket in the field."

Senator Johnson has been invited to attend the gridiron dinner and will give a five minute speech on that occasion. Although this dinner is given by newspaper men it is one of the occasions when no reporters are present and Senator Johnson's speech will not be made public.

CLAIMS N. DAK. LIGNITE INDUSTRY BEING THROTTLED

(By United Press)

Bismarck, N. D., Nov. 23.—Governor R. A. Nestos has ordered Attorney General Schaffer to investigate and determine whether eastern railroads, coal operators and lake dock operators are not violating the criminal provision of the Sherman anti-trust act in an effort to throttle North Dakota lignite coal industry.

Governor Nestos said he had suspicions that lignite freight rates are being raised to cripple the industry.

The state has been fighting proposed lignite freight increases for some time and the increases have been temporarily suspended by the interstate commerce commission until next year.

Lignite coal is being sold in Minnesota for less than half the price of the best Pennsylvania anthracite.

160 Separatists Killed, 600 Wounded in Fights

STUDENT SPECIALS TO BIG FOOTBALL GAME TO CARRY DRY AGENTS

Madison, Wis., Nov. 23.—Federal prohibition agents will accompany special trains that will carry University of Wisconsin students and football fans to Chicago for the Chicago-Wisconsin game tomorrow, according to announcement at the offices of the federal authorities today. The action, the announcement said, would be taken in an effort to prevent flagrant violations of the prohibition laws.

Highways leading into Chicago also will be closely guarded, the federal agents said, adding that Wisconsin agents will be assisted by those from Illinois in watching for illicit liquor.

COOLIDGE BUILDING FENCES FOR 1924

CLAIM MADE HE IS FOLLOWING OLD METHODS OF PERSONAL CAMPAIGN

LAWRENCE MARTIN

(Copyright 1923 by United Press)

Washington, Nov. 23.—President Coolidge is actively "building fences" for 1924.

Avoiding the spectacular, he is following methods of personal campaigning which brought him prominence in Massachusetts politically.

At one stroke today, the president killed off a proposal which might have caused him trouble in the senate and gave aid and comfort to republicans in the south where a vigorous effort is to be made in 1924 to take advantage of an expected division of the democratic strength between McAdoo and Underwood.

Coolidge accepted the resignation of Joseph W. Tolbert as United States marshal and in return for Tolbert's retirement appointed three republicans to federal jobs in Tolbert's district.

Tolbert is national republican committeeman for South Carolina. President Harding gave him a recess appointment as marshal.

Senator Dial, South Carolina, democrat, fought confirmation and succeeded in holding it up. If Mr. Coolidge had sent the nomination back, Dial would have continued his fight.

The president's action in the Tolbert case is understood here to have been influenced by Bascomb Slemp, his secretary, a Virginia republican whose views Mr. Coolidge is taking in politics.

COOLIDGE STATEMENT ON LOWERING TAXES

Washington, Nov. 23.—President Coolidge will tell congress and the country that only on certain definite conditions can taxes be lowered in the coming congress, it was indicated today.

These conditions include strict observance of the budget system in making appropriations and the elimination of the soldier bonus from present consideration unless some means is found for financing it.

Secretary of the Treasury Mellon and Comptroller of the Currency Dawes are now drafting for the president a "financial message" to congress to accompany the budget which will be submitted on the opening day of congress.

The message supplied by Mellon and Dawes will form the basis of the President's comments while it is unlikely he will go into much detail in the budget message on the tax question. It was learned he intends to make these points:

1. That the country has shown a strong desire for tax reduction.

2. That he believes such tax reduction entirely possible.

3. That it is up to congress to make it possible by keeping appropriations within the budget and in not passing "supplemental and extraordinary expenditure bills."

4. There can be no tax reduction if there is a soldier bonus.

CHICAGO PACKERS DEFY GOVERNMENT IN AUDIT SOUGHT

FIGHT ORDER OF SECRETARY OF AGRICULTURE ORDERING FEDERAL EXAMINATION

CLAIM GOVERNMENT HAS NO POWER TO ESTABLISH ACCOUNTANTS IN OFFICES

(By United Press)

Chicago, Nov. 23.—Packing interests in America centered their attention in the great packing companies of Chicago today defying the United States to audit their books.

Lead by Swift and Company and the Cudahy Packing Company, the packers announced they would fight the order of Henry G. Wallace, secretary of agriculture, commanding them to make available their books for inspection by federal auditors.

"We claim on behalf of our 45,000 stockholders the right which the constitution guarantees to all citizens of being permitted (in the absence of specific charges) to conduct our business peacefully and without interference from government agents," L. F. Swift, president of Swift and Company declared in a formal statement.

"If the government has power to maintain accountants in our office as it claims, it also would have power to establish such accountants permanently in all business offices in the country, a situation which we believe is unthinkable."

Reasons and objections to the auditing of company books, Swift said, were that government experts would become so familiar with their business methods that competitors "might hire them away" from the government for the trade secrets which they had learned.

The packers are to have their books available today for federal authorities, according to Wallace's statement.

GOVERNMENT TO FORCE ACTION SOON

Washington, Nov. 23.—Action to force the packers to submit their records to inspection by department of agriculture officials, will be begun shortly by the government, it was indicated today following conferences of officials here.

HUSBAND'S GIFT COSTS HIM WIFE

$500 SENT TO RUSSIA MAKES HER RICH—REFUSAL TO JOIN HER SPOUSE BRINGS DIVORCE

Minneapolis, Nov. 23.—Five hundred dollars in American money, sent to Russia to pay his wife's transportation to Minneapolis, caused him to lose his wife altogether, because when it was translated into rubles the wife was too rich to bother about leaving her own country, Sam Dolinsky, shoemaker, testified before District Judge George W. Buffington, in a hearing in which Dolinsky was given a decree of absolute divorce.

"I came to this country from Russia, 10 years ago," Dolinsky testified. "I had been married only three months, but I told my wife 'As soon as I get money I will send for you.' Then the war came, and I could do nothing. But after the war I sent $500.

"But rubles had gone down. So she turned my $500 into rubles, and she was worth millions. Then she wrote to me 'I do not want to come. I am rich now. Go get a church divorce.' I did, and now I want a legal one."

Judge Buffington granted the decree on grounds of desertion based on Mrs. Dolinsky's letter, which her husband produced in court.

POPOCATEPETL, QUIET SINCE THE SPANISH CONQUEST, IS ACTIVE

(By United Press)

Mexico City, Nov. 23.—Popocatepetl, Mexico's snow capped volcano which has been in semi-activity since the days of the Spanish conquest, became active again today.

An intense rain of ashes is falling while the summit of the crater is belching with dense columns of smoke. Indians in the surrounding villages are terror stricken, preparing to flee from their homes.

RIOT BREAKS OUT AFTER TALK OF AN ALLEGED EX-NUN

MRS. HELEN STEELE SPOKE AT ST. JOHN'S THEATRE IN KANSAS CITY

FOLLOWING ADDRESS WOMEN SCREAMED, PULLED HAIR, POLICE CALLED

(By United Press)

Kansas City, Nov. 23.—Rioting broke out here last night following an address at St. John's theatre by Mrs. Helen Steele, who claims to be an ex-nun.

Scheduled speeches of the woman had been ordered stopped by police, following on outbreak in a meeting Wednesday, but she obtained a court injunction preventing further police interference.

Following her address last night women started to scream and pull hair and fighting broke out.

One woman who asked a question following the speech was escorted from the theatre by police amid cries of "throw her out."

On the outside fist fighting started, and scores of police were required to quiet the crowd.

IOWA BUS QUEEN BEATS RAILROADS

MASON CITY GIRL TOO BUSY TO CONSIDER MATRIMONY—PLANS EXTENSION

Mason City, Iowa, Nov. 23.—Victorious over railroads, interurban lines and rural chambers of commerce who opposed her, Miss Helen Schultz, aged 24, Iowa bus queen, owner of the Red Ball bus line, authorized by the Iowa railroad commission to operate a line between Des Moines and Mason City, is planning an extension of her company.

Starting two years with $800 saved from her salary as a railroad clerk, Miss Schultz has increased her bus line from one secondhand bus to 15 motor coaches, covering 2,000 miles daily and capable of carrying hundreds of passengers. The decision of the railroad commission ended a fight begun by railroads and interurban lines, assisted by farmers' organizations who opposed the granting of a certificate to operate to Miss Schultz's company.

Her employees are all men, and she prefers men over 30.

"I'd rather deal with men," she says. "I prefer my drivers to be over 30, because they are more trustworthy than younger men. I have little trouble with them. I play square with them and usually they play fair with me. If they don't I fire 'em."

She says she has no time to think of matrimony.

"I have too many other troubles," she replied to reporters' inquiries. I'm not a man hater. But I haven't time to thnik about being serious about such things now."

SEPARATISTS ARE FORCED TO REDUCE THEIR ACTIVITIES

CHIEFS DISBAND FORCES AND NOW CONTROL ONLY CERTAIN CITIES

GERMAN EXPERTS REPORT FINANCIAL CONDITION OF COUNTRY TO FRENCH

(By United Press)

Dusseldorf, Nov. 23. — One hundred and sixty separatists were killed and 600 are believed wounded in recent fighting, German newspapers announced.

As a result of defeats, the separatists chiefs decided to disband their forces limiting their activities to maintaining control in cities already occupied.

CLAIMS TEUTONS CANNOT PAY IN CASH

Paris, Nov. 23.—Germany cannot pay in cash at present, her delegates told the reparations commission today.

The German experts, Fischer, Brendt, Doorn, Scheffer and Simons began an expose of their country's financial condition.

Simultaneously Poincare announced he would accept interpellations in the chamber of deputies this afternoon regarding the consequences of France's isolation.

Poincare was expected to give details of the session of the ambassadors' council and the reply to Chancellor Stresemann's recent Reichstag speech which the Paris morning papers characterized as ridiculous.

STRESEMANN APPEALS TO THE REICHSTAG

Berlin, Nov. 23—Chancellor Stresemann placed his political faith in the hands of the Reichstag today.

The Chancellor asked a vote of confidence in the face of three resolutions to the contrary introduced by the socialists, the nationalists and the communists.

Stresemann asked a quick verdict. It was understood that in the event of his overthrow he would be asked by President Ebert to try once more to form a cabinet. Fresh failure would probably mean dissolution of parliament.

HERRICK ISSUES FLAT DENIAL

Paris, Nov. 23.—American Ambassador Myron T. Herrick today issued a formal denial of the story published in the United States purporting to be a digest of his report to Washington regarding the recent ambassadors' conference. Herrick stated that no information whatever had been given anyone either here or at Washington.

SEPARATISTS OCCUPY MANNHEIM CITY HALLS

Berlin, Nov. 23.—Separatists today occupied the city halls at Mannheim and Ludwigshafen, according to the Vossisiche Zeitung's correspondent.

There was some shooting. The correspondent alleges that French troops aided the separatists by disarming the police.

POINCARE RAPS THE HOHENZOLLERNS

Paris, Nov. 23.—"It is intolerable to the peace of Europe that the ill-fated dynasty of the Hohenzoliern should be restored," Premier Poincare shouted at the climax of a stirring speech in the chamber of deputies this afternoon.

The deputies arose as one man.

They climbed to their seats and stood cheering themselves hoarse. The chamber was a bedlam of sound and Poincare smiling, could not proceed.

When the din had died down a bit, the premier exclaimed significantly:

"Our allies will know tonight that we are unanimous on that."

Again the bedlam broke loose when Poincare declared:

"For our security we intend to consolidate our positions in the Ruhr. We will not evacuate until the reparations have been paid in full."

FAILS TO GET VOTE OF CONFIDENCE

Berlin, Nov. 23.—The Reichstag tonight refused to give Chancellor Stresemann the vote of confidence he requested.

Resignation of the German chancellor and his cabinet ordinarily follows immediately upon failure to secure a vote of confidence.

Three parties, the communists, socialists and the nationalists had introduced motions of lack of confidence before Stresemann put his political fate to the test.

10,000 COMMUNISTS BATTLE WITH POLICE

Paris, Nov. 23. — Ten thousand communists massed in the streets of Essen, battled with police today, according to advices from French sources.

One policeman was killed and two wounded and 20 workers were seriously injured.

CHANGE IN FASHION COSTS GOVERNMENT HEAVILY IN FURS

Washington, Nov. 23. — The United States government is losing substantial sums of money because American women have changed their fashions in furs and are showing less interest in seal skins, Secretary Hoover said. Moreover, the government has in stock some 10,000 fur pelts which may have to be held for a considerable period before disposing of them. The British, Japanese and Russian governments also, the secretary declared, were facing losses as a result of the change in styles.

LONGEST PAVEMENT EXTENDS 1,476 MILES

WONDERFUL CALIFORNIA HIGHWAY HAS ALMOST 6,500,000 PEOPLE ALONG IT

The longest paved highway in the world, say the proud people living along it, is Pacific Avenue running the whole length of the Pacific Coast from Canada to Mexico.

It is 1,476 miles long and 6,526,921 persons, according to actual count, live along its meandering way. The ribbon of pavement is being exploited to build up the Pacific slope, to attract the money of tourists and investors and is held to be more than paying its way in that manner besidea serving the millions already living along it.

Minnesota, according to a recent bulletin, has less than 500 miles of paving on its trunk system, yet it is possible to drive about 175 miles in one general direction without leaving the pavement. The extension of this longest paved stretch at home together with Minnesota's attractions for settlers and tourists will enlarge the profits it already is bringing the state, according to good roads advocates.

SAWED WAY OUT OF JAIL; TAKEN ON LAKE STEAMER

(By United Press)

Duluth, Nov. 23.—Welmot G. Van Schaik, 21, who escaped from the Duluth city jail October 30 by sawing the bars, was recaptured at Two Harbors late Thursday by local authorities. He was taken from a lake steamer on which he was masquerading under an assumed name.

His wife, Pearl, is now out on bail after having confessed she furnished him with the saws enabling him to escape.

INVALID SPOUSE SEES HER HUSBAND KILLED WITH CLUB

STRANGE MAN ENTERS DUANE CHAPEL'S HOME IN MINNEAPOLIS

STRIKES DOWN CHAPEL AS HE LAY SLEEPING ON A COUCH

(By United Press)

Minneapolis, Nov. 23.—The invalid wife of Duane Chapel, 64, looked on last night as a masked man entered her home and killed her husband with a club. She was unable to move.

No explanation of the killing has been unearthed by Sheriff Earle Brown early today. Posses searched for the killer.

While he was sleeping on a couch in his home at Maple Plain near here, the man entered. Mrs. Chapel saw the man. Without a word he went to the couch, raised his club and struck his victim. As Chapel rolled to the floor, he struck another blow and then silently fled.

Three hours later, Guy Chapel, 24, son, returned home. He found his invalid mother a nervous wreck and his father dead. He called authorities.

Mother and son were housed in the county jail last night and questioned for hours by the sheriff. A description of the masked murderer was obtained.

A blanket of snow covered the ground last night, and no trace of the man could be found.

It was the second tragedy in the family. A little more than four years ago a 14 year old daughter was stabbed to death by Wellington Michael, half brother of Chapel. He was insane.

NEIGHBORHOOD FEUD BEING INVESTIGATED

Minneapolis, Nov. 23.—A neighborhood feud is being investigated today as a possible solution of the mysterious murder last night at Maple Plain.

Sheriff Earle Brown, two deputies and village officials are at the village this afternoon investigating. They believe that the wife and son of the dead man, Duane Chapel, know more about the affair than they will tell. Blood stains were found on his wife's clothing. Indications are, they said, that Chapel was attacked first in the bedroom, staggered into the kitchen and was killed there. His wife, claiming to be an invalid, said she sat helplessly by and saw a masked man kill her husband with a club. Authorities said she was able bodied and not as much of an invalid as she claimed and that Chapel was killed with an axe and not with a club.

SHIPSTEAD TO PROTECT LIGNITE RATE RISE

Washington, Nov. 23.—Senator Henrik Shipstead (farmer-labor, Minn.) said on his arrival here that he planned as soon as possible to protest to the interstate commerce commission against the proposed advance in the freight rates on lignite coal in the northwest. He said the new rates would result in a substantial increase in the cost to the consumers and probably would seriously injure the industry.

HEAVY SNOWFALL BLANKETS STATE

(By United Press)

Duluth, Nov. 23—Most of northern Minnesota is heavily blanketed with snow today.

The fall began late Thursday afternoon and continued far into the night. More snow was in the air today.

The depth of the fall is well over four inches in the northern tier of counties.

Berlin, Nov. 23.—The Reichstag tonight refused to give Chancellor Stresemann the vote of confidence he requested.

Resignation of the German chancellor and his cabinet ordinarily follows immediately upon failure to secure a vote of confidence.

Three parties, the communists, socialists and the nationalists had introduced motions of lack of confidence before Stresemann put his political fate to the test.

10,000 COMMUNISTS BATTLE WITH POLICE

Paris, Nov. 23. — Ten thousand communists massed in the streets of Essen, battled with police today, according to advices from French sources.

One policeman was killed and two wounded and 20 workers were seriously injured.

CHANGE IN FASHION COSTS GOVERNMENT HEAVILY IN FURS

Washington, Nov. 23. — The United States government is losing substantial sums of money because American women have changed their fashions in furs and are showing less interest in seal skins, Secretary Hoover said. Moreover, the government has in stock some 10,000 fur pelts which may have to be held for a considerable period before disposing of them. The British, Japanese and Russian governments also, the secretary declared, were facing losses as a result of the change in styles.

LONGEST PAVEMENT EXTENDS 1,476 MILES

WONDERFUL CALIFORNIA HIGHWAY HAS ALMOST 6,500,000 PEOPLE ALONG IT

The longest paved highway in the world, say the proud people living along it, is Pacific Avenue running the whole length of the Pacific Coast from Canada to Mexico.

It is 1,476 miles long and 6,526,921 persons, according to actual count, live along its meandering way. The ribbon of pavement is being exploited to build up the Pacific slope, to attract the money of tourists and investors and is held to be more than paying its way in that manner besides serving the millions already living along it.

Minnesota, according to a recent bulletin, has less than 500 miles of paving on its trunk system, yet it is possible to drive about 175 miles in one general direction without leaving the pavement. The extension of this longest paved stretch at home together with Minnesota's attractions for settlers and tourists will enlarge the profits it already is bringing the state, according to good roads advocates.

SAWED WAY OUT OF JAIL; TAKEN ON LAKE STEAMER

(By United Press)

Duluth, Nov. 23.—Welmot G. Van Schaik, 21, who escaped from the Duluth city jail October 30 by sawing the bars, was recaptured at Two Harbors late Thursday by local authorities. He was taken from a lake steamer on which he was masquerading under an assumed name.

His wife, Pearl, is now out on bail after having confessed she furnished him with the saws enabling him to escape.

INVALID SPOUSE SEES HER HUSBAND KILLED WITH CLUB

STRANGE MAN ENTERS DUANE CHAPEL'S HOME IN MINNEAPOLIS

STRIKES DOWN CHAPEL AS HE LAY SLEEPING ON A COUCH

(By United Press)

Minneapolis, Nov. 23.—The invalid wife of Duane Chapel, 64, looked on last night as a masked man entered her home and killed her husband with a club. She was unable to move.

No explanation of the killing has been unearthed by Sheriff Earle Brown early today. Posses searched for the killer.

While he was sleeping on a couch in his home at Maple Plain near here, the man entered. Mrs. Chapel saw the man. Without a word he went to the couch, raised his club and struck his victim. As Chapel rolled to the floor, he struck another blow and then silently fled.

Three hours later, Guy Chapel, 24, son, returned home. He found his invalid mother a nervous wreck and his father dead. He called authorities.

Mother and son were housed in the county jail last night and questioned for hours by the sheriff. A description of the masked murderer was obtained.

A blanket of snow covered the ground last night, and no trace of the man could be found.

It was the second tragedy in the family. A little more than four years ago a 14 year old daughter was stabbed to death by Wellington Michael, half brother of Chapel. He was insane.

NEIGHBORHOOD FEUD BEING INVESTIGATED

Minneapolis, Nov. 23.—A neighborhood feud is being investigated today as a possible solution of the mysterious murder last night at Maple Plain.

Sheriff Earle Brown, two deputies and village officials are at the village this afternoon investigating. They believe that the wife and son of the dead man, Duane Chapel, know more about the affair than they will tell. Blood stains were found on his wife's clothing. Indications are, they said, that Chapel was attacked first in the bedroom, staggered into the kitchen and was killed there. His wife, claiming to be an invalid, said she sat helplessly by and saw a masked man kill her husband with a club. Authorities said she was able bodied and not as much of an invalid as she claimed and that Chapel was killed with an axe and not with a club.

SHIPSTEAD TO PROTECT LIGNITE RATE RISE

Washington, Nov. 23.—Senator Henrik Shipstead (farmer-labor, Minn.) said on his arrival here that he planned as soon as possible to protest to the interstate commerce commission against the proposed advance in the freight rates on lignite coal in the northwest. He said the new rates would result in a substantial increase in the cost to the consumers and probably would seriously injure the industry.

HEAVY SNOWFALL BLANKETS STATE

(By United Press)

Duluth, Nov. 23—Most of northern Minnesota is heavily blanketed with snow today.

The fall began late Thursday afternoon and continued far into the night. More snow was in the air today.

The depth of the fall is well over four inches in the northern tier of counties.

Abatement Proceedings Against 500 Buildings

(By United Press)

Minneapolis, Nov. 23.—Abatement proceednigs will be begun soon in U. S. District court against 500 buildings in Minnesota.

This was anounced today by F. B. Qvale, state prohibition officer, following announcement by Lafayette French, U. S. district attorney that 300 Minneapolis soft drink bars will be closed.

These proceedings will include a large number of bars wherein no court convictions have been obtained.

Besides the 300 in Minneapolis against which proceedings will be started, there are 100 in St. Paul and an additional 100 in smaller cities over the state.

Cabarets, cafes and prominent hotels are on the list which is being kept secret, Qvale said.

CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTMENTS

A KINK IN THE BACK

Is the most common ailment in this locality. Literally dozens and dozens more can tell you that they were relieved by a few scientifically delivered chiropractic adjustments. Plasters or drugs can never adjust a vertebrae of the spine that is out of alignment. It requires wisely directed force and a chiropractor is especially trained to deliver just the force necessary.

Consultation, spinal analysis and booklets free. House and country calls made, day or night.

CHIROPRACTIC ADJUSTMENTS

A KINK IN THE BACK

Is the most common ailment in this locality. Literally dozens and dozens more can tell you that they were relieved by a few scientifically delivered chiropractic adjustments. Plasters or drugs can never adjust a vertebrae of the spine that is out of alignment. It requires wisely directed force and a chiropractor is especially trained to deliver just the force necessary.

Consultation, spinal analysis and booklets free. House and country calls made, day or night.

A THANKSGIVING ATHLETIC CARNIVAL

To be Staged at Elks Hall Monday Evening, Nov. 26, by the American Legion

AN INTERESTING PROGRAM

Pleasant Surprise In Store For All Who Attend the Festivities

The American Legion will stage a Thanksgiving athletic carnival at Elks hall on Monday evening, November 26th.

The committee in charge is composed of Richard M. Johnson, Kirk Smith and William T. Conkin. This committee refuses to divulge the principals who will take part in this carnival, but state that a very interesting program has been arranged and that there will be some pleasant surprise in store for all who attend.

The American Legion made quite a reputation for itself in this line at one of its recent meetings, when it brought to Brainerd Carl Fletcher and Lawrence Johnson, both contestants for the lightweight mat championship.

Lovers of indoor athletics are promised an equally good program on Monday night at the Thanksgiving athletic carnival, and all are asked to keep this date open.

The festivities will begin promptly at 8 o'clock. A small admission fee will be charged.

Changing the Nationality

A lady out shopping one day entered a butcher's shop and asked for a sheep's head. She emphatically stated that she must have English mutton.

"Sorry, mum," replied the butcher, "we only stock Scotch mutton."

The lady was most anxious to purchase the sheep's head, but she was insistent that it must be English.

Turning to the back of the shop the butcher called his boy assistant to him and said quietly, pointing to the head of a sheep lying on a counter at the far end of the shop, "Jock tak' the brains ott o' that heid."—Dry Goods Economist.

FAMILY TROUBLES LED TO SHOOTING

(By United Press)

Dickinson, N. D., Nov. 23.—The trial of Joseph Mossey, 65, charged with shooting and killing his son-in-law, Tones Dolliver, at the latter's farm in Richardton in June, 1922, will begin December 3. Mossey will plead self-defense. He maintains the shooting followed an altercation over family troubles.

Macaroni At It's Best

KITCHEN BOUQUET, a purely vegetable product, is in almost every pantry. Housewives know it is the secret of making good gravies and soups, but KITCHEN BOUQUET is equally good in preparing many other dishes. Try your next dish of macaroni prepared this way—

BAKED MACARONI

½ package macaroni, broken in pieces
2 teaspoons of salt
2 quarts boiling water
½ cup grated cheese
1 teaspoon Kitchen Bouquet
Milk Butter

Cook macaroni in boiling salted water until tender, drain and blanch with cold water. Place one-third the cooked macaroni in buttered baking dish, dot with butter and sprinkle with grated cheese, then more macaroni, butter and cheese until dish is full. Add Kitchen Bouquet to milk and pour this over the macaroni to nearly cover, then sprinkle thickly with cheese. Bake in medium hot oven a half hour, until nicely browned and serve immediately for dinner.

NEW LAMP BURNS 94% AIR

Beats Electric or Gas

A new oil lamp that give an amazing brilliant, soft, white light, even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U. S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noise—no pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 per cent air and 6 per cent common kerosene (coal oil.)

The inventor, J. E. Johnson, 609 W. Lake St., Chicago, Ill., is offering to send a lamp on 10 days' FREE trial, or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month.

GRAND JURY RECOMMENDATIONS

THE grand jury of the November term of the district court, after hearing the evidence introduced, was prompted to submit recommendations whose value is conceded by those who have been present in the court room during this term of court. The recommendations stressed in the grand jury's report had to do with the prevalence of youthful wrong-doing in Crow Wing county. The members of the grand jury were so much impressed by what they heard that they asked the people of the county to cooperate with the officials of the county in their efforts to check juvenile evil-doing.

It would be wrong to assume that there is more juvenile delinquency in Crow Wing county than in any other counties of the state, and there is no reason to believe that in this county more young people approaching manhood and womanhood are guilty of wrong-doing. There is reason to believe that Crow Wing county is suffering less from the evils of youth than some other counties, but that does not deny the evidence of a growing percentage of youthful criminals.

In some of the evidence presented in district court it was brought out that the evils were committed while under the influence of liquor, and it is well known that many young people are addicted to drinking moonshine. The results of this practice may be disastrous. Reason departs when moonshine takes command and young people are in grave danger when they drink it.

Many things are blamed for the increasing number of young people who are criminal and whose acts bring them into court. The automobile is blamed, moonshine is blamed, the picture shows are blamed, lack of parental direction is blamed, and there are some who still hold that it is a result of the World war. It is impossible to put the finger on any one of these and say that it alone is responsible for what occurs, but it is really significant that the evidence in most cases leads to an indictment of liquor and the automobile.

Many good people in the county do not dream that things are as bad as they are, and when they have been advised of the cases tried in this term of the district court, they will be ready to accept the recommendation of the grand jury which asked that they cooperate with the officials of the county in their efforts to check the growth of the number of young people who find their way into court. This will be done by seeing to it that those who sell liquor to minors are made so uncomfortable that they will depart from this county or by encouraging an attitude which demands that the guilty be brought to speedy justice.

The calendar of the court shows that the officials of the county have been active and it is to their credit that the juries have been impressed by the evidence submitted. Sentimentality must be left behind in a day when civilization itself is at stake through the prevalence of a lack of respect for law and order. When freedom refuses to recognize obligations and the citizen ceases to respect the sanctions of society and the laws of the state none are safe from the threat of a lawless age. With this in view the citizens of Crow Wing county will give more thought to their duties as citizens and as citizens they will work for the suppression of those who aid young people on the road that leads to a prison cell.

DEFRAUDING THE INNOCENT

THOSE who attempt to capitalize the weaknesses of humanity and by false pretences take savings of innocent people should be punished severely. When men who do this are sentenced the sentence should be allowed to run its full length and their clever manipulations for the purpose of winning their freedom should not be allowed to defeat the ends of justice.

Dr. Frederick A. Cook, who on one occasion claimed that he had discovered the North Pole and whose claims were afterwards denied by a competent body, having used his fame to sell stock in the Petroleum Producers association, whose operations were of such a character that he with others interested has been found guilty of using the mails illegally, should be given the punishment he richly deserves, and that punishment should not consist of listening to the sentence and serving a short time to be released long before the natural sentence has expired.

There is something in human nature which prompts people to plunge with the hope of getting rich quick. Bankers discourage such investments, but in spite of their intelligent advice the people whom they have advised of the unwisdom of such speculation proceed to hand over their savings to those who exploit their credulity. The fact that this tendency is present in men and women is not to be considered an excuse when one has deliberately used this weakness to rob people of their hard-earned savings. Those who suffer most in such cases are the people whom society should protect. Widows often fall victims to such grafters and it is said that there are a dozen vultures of this kind ready to pounce upon a widow who has a few dollars upon which to live. Those who ought to have more sense are not so much to be pitied, but because human nature is what it is those who are told of the possibility of large profits from small investments are unable to resist the temptation, and just because of this common weakness men who are otherwise strong need protection from these parasites on the social organism.

The publicity given to this case will serve as an object lesson to would-be speculators, yet there are many who will be ready to believe the next stock salesman who comes along promising large gains. But, perhaps, after this object lesson salesmen will hesitate before they offer worthless paper to the public, yet, again, such is human nature that some of these are likely to seek the road to easy money though the price be peace of mind and freedom of action.

For the good of society Dr. Cook should be kept confined through the period covered by the sentence. He has proved that he is clever in his pretences but none of his clever schemes should be allowed to interfere with the tenure of the sentence imposed. He who robs widows and orphans, by playing upon their ignorance and innocence, should pay the penalty to the full.

BIDDING THE PUBLIC BE SILENT

W. B. STOREY of Chicago, president of the Santa Fe system of railroads, while under cross-examination by Judge Clyde M. Reed of the Kansas public utilities commission declared, according to a report in a newspaper, "that it is none of the shippers' affairs what is done with the corporate surplus of a railroad, any more than it is the affair of a customer of any kind of business what is done with the profits of the concern with whom he deals."

Just why men in such a position will continue to express such views is passing strange. They may be experts in railroad management but they are certainly inexpert in appealing to the public, and the fact is that, in spite of Mr. Storey's statement that what the railroads do with their surplus is no concern of the shippers, the shipper does not concede that this is true.

Perhaps Mr. Storey fails to see that the shipper provides this surplus, that he is compelled to provide it because the railroads have a monopoly on transportation, and that he has little to say relative to the freight rates which are fixed by the railroads and the Interstate Commerce Commission, and that the railroads are not free to fix their rates but are subject to the will of a body which functions by the will of the government of the United States.

There are men who live in the past. They think in terms of the past. They refuse to see what the public has seen for some time, which is, that the railroads of the United States are a public utility and that the shippers and the public they serve have something to say about the service rendered, whether the railroads like it or not. Such men will not see that the United States makes possible this surplus, that the United States is the home of over 110,000,000 people who are the United States and without whom the railroads would not be. The public the railroads serve has a right to say something about the servant they employ and about the income to be paid to this servant.

But it may be said that while this is true the public has nothing to do with the way the servant spends the income. This is hardly true for large employers, including the railroads, refuse to employ men in certain capacities who use liquor and they backed with all their might the eighteenth amendment which has something to do with how their employees spend their wages. The fact is that there is a growing consciousness that corporations do not exist of their own right or for their own ends. Many who believe that the railroads should have reasonable freedom in working out their own problems will resent Mr. Storey's statement of the case as he sees it. The freedom of the railroads to do anything depends upon the United States of America and the shippers are one part of the United States and the public are the United States and can decide to allow the railroads a certain freedom or can make them slaves. To challenge this right is quite dangerous at a time like this when many would like to show the railroads just what their rights are in a nation where the people rule.

SENATOR JAMES E. WATSON of Indiana has thrown his hat into the ring and if the hat throwing keeps up there will be a danger that the fellows throwing hats won't get any hat at the end of the contest.

Girl Offered for Sale For $400 or a Ford

Doris Lang, 17-year-old girl, who it is said was offered for sale by her aunt with whom she has been living, for "$400 or a Ford car," according to neighbors who complained to Probate Judge A. D. Norton of Painesville, Ohio. The girl, it is said, had written to a neighboring farmer to adopt her, as her aunt was planning to "sell" her to a Cleveland man.

Turkey Predicts Mild Winter; Rears Brood Of Little Ones in Fall

Minneapolis, Nov. 23—Minnesota is an ideal place to spend the winter.

To quote Emma, the 2 year old turkey, "Gobble, Gobble, I am raising a brood of babies—Gobble, Gobble, they won't die 'cause we're going to have a mild winter this year, Gobble, Gobble—."

Emma belongs to Andrew T. Casey, who lives in Edgebrook, between St. Louis Park and Hopkins. With the supremest nonchalance, Emma stole away the other day and laid seven eggs. Now she is attempting to raise the second brood of turklets this year.

"During all my experience as a turkey fancier," Mr. Casey said, "I never before have seen a turkey nesting in the autumn. Emma has too much sense to do anything that is unreasonable—she is 2 years old—and she has an uncanny degree of common turkey sense."

Mr. Casey vows that a correct interpretation of the turkey's antics proves conclusively that Minnesota will have so mild a winter that even turkey babies can be raised safely."

Kellogg's Bran gives permanent relief because it is ALL BRAN!

Every member of your family will enjoy better health—eat better, work better, sleep better—if they eat Kellogg's Bran regularly. Its natural, positive work for health is actually a blessing to humanity! Kellogg's gives permanent relief from constipation because it is ALL BRAN! It is scientifically prepared to relieve suffering humanity from constipation.

Kellogg's Bran cleans and purifies the drainage channel; it clears away toxic poisons and frees you from the ravages of such dread diseases as Bright's, diabetes, etc., as well as sick headaches, rheumatism and mental and physical depression. A week's trial of this great nature food will prove that its work for health is wonderful!

Consider Kellogg's Bran as a food. It is not a laxative nor a medicine. Bran is the outer coating of whole wheat and contains such nourishment factors as mineral salts and other elements vital in sustaining life!

Kellogg's Bran is cooked and all ready to eat. It is delightful as a cereal, or sprinkled over your favorite hot or cold cereal. Another popular way to eat it is to cook or mix it with a hot cereal. In preparation, add two tablespoonfuls of bran for each person.

Delicious bakery batches are made with Kellogg's Bran. Recipes are printed on each package.

DO TWO THINGS—Eat Kellogg's Bran each day for permanent relief from constipation and be certain to eat at least two tablespoonfuls; in chronic cases, with each meal.

First-class hotels, clubs and restaurants serve Kellogg's Bran in individual packages. Ask for it at your restaurant. All grocers.

GRAND JURY RECOMMENDATIONS

THE grand jury of the November term of the district court, after hearing the evidence introduced, was prompted to submit recommendations whose value is conceded by those who have been present in the court room during this term of court. The recommendations stressed in the grand jury's report had to do with the prevalence of youthful wrong-doing in Crow Wing county. The members of the grand jury were so much impressed by what they heard that they asked the people of the county to cooperate with the officials of the county in their efforts to check juvenile evil-doing.

It would be wrong to assume that there is more juvenile delinquency in Crow Wing county than in any other counties of the state, and there is no reason to believe that in this county more young people approaching manhood and womanhood are guilty of wrong-doing. There is reason to believe that Crow Wing county is suffering less from the evils of youth than some other counties, but that does not deny the evidence of a growing percentage of youthful criminals.

In some of the evidence presented in district court it was brought out that the evils were committed while under the influence of liquor, and it is well known that many young people are addicted to drinking moonshine. The results of this practice may be disastrous. Reason departs when moonshine takes command and young people are in grave danger when they drink it.

Many things are blamed for the increasing number of young people who are criminal and whose acts bring them into court. The automobile is blamed, moonshine is blamed, the picture shows are blamed, lack of parental direction is blamed, and there are some who still hold that it is a result of the World war. It is impossible to put the finger on any one of these and say that it alone is responsible for what occurs, but it is really significant that the evidence in most cases leads to an indictment of liquor and the automobile.

Many good people in the county do not dream that things are as bad as they are, and when they have been advised of the cases tried in this term of the district court, they will be ready to accept the recommendation of the grand jury which asked that they cooperate with the officials of the county in their efforts to check the growth of the number of young people who find their way into court. This will be done by seeing to it that those who sell liquor to minors are made so uncomfortable that they will depart from this county or by encouraging an attitude which demands that the guilty be brought to speedy justice.

The calendar of the court shows that the officials of the county have been active and it is to their credit that the juries have been impressed by the evidence submitted. Sentimentality must be left behind in a day when civilization itself is at stake through the prevalence of a lack of respect for law and order. When freedom refuses to recognize obligations and the citizen ceases to respect the sanctions of society and the laws of the state none are safe from the threat of a lawless age. With this in view the citizens of Crow Wing county will give more thought to their duties as citizens and as citizens they will work for the suppression of those who aid young people on the road that leads to a prison cell.

DEFRAUDING THE INNOCENT

THOSE who attempt to capitalize the weaknesses of humanity and by false pretences take savings of innocent people should be punished severely. When men who do this are sentenced the sentence should be allowed to run its full length and their clever manipulations for the purpose of winning their freedom should not be allowed to defeat the ends of justice.

Dr. Frederick A. Cook, who on one occasion claimed that he had discovered the North Pole and whose claims were afterwards denied by a competent body, having used his fame to sell stock in the Petroleum Producers association, whose operations were of such a character that he with others interested has been found guilty of using the mails illegally, should be given the punishment he richly deserves, and that punishment should not consist of listening to the sentence and serving a short time to be released long before the natural sentence has expired.

There is something in human nature which prompts people to plunge with the hope of getting rich quick. Bankers discourage such investments, but in spite of their intelligent advice the people whom they have advised of the unwisdom of such speculation proceed to hand over their savings to those who exploit their credulity. The fact that this tendency is present in men and women is not to be considered an excuse when one has deliberately used this weakness to rob people of their hard-earned savings. Those who suffer most in such cases are the people whom society should protect. Widows often fall victims to such grafters and it is said that there are a dozen vultures of this kind ready to pounce upon a widow who has a few dollars upon which to live. Those who ought to have more sense are not so much to be pitied, but because human nature is what it is those who are told of the possibility of large profits from small investments are unable to resist the temptation, and just because of this common weakness men who are otherwise strong need protection from these parasites on the social organism.

The publicity given to this case will serve as an object lesson to would-be speculators, yet there are many who will be ready to believe the next stock salesman who comes along promising large gains. But, perhaps, after this object lesson salesmen will hesitate before they offer worthless paper to the public, yet, again, such is human nature that some of these are likely to seek the road to easy money though the price be peace of mind and freedom of action.

For the good of society Dr. Cook should be kept confined through the period covered by the sentence. He has proved that he is clever in his pretences but none of his clever schemes should be allowed to interfere with the tenure of the sentence imposed. He who robs widows and orphans, by playing upon their ignorance and innocence, should pay the penalty to the full.

BIDDING THE PUBLIC BE SILENT

W. B. STOREY of Chicago, president of the Santa Fe system of railroads, while under cross-examination by Judge Clyde M. Reed of the Kansas public utilities commission declared, according to a report in a newspaper, "that it is none of the shippers' affairs what is done with the corporate surplus of a railroad, any more than it is the affair of a customer of any kind of business what is done with the profits of the concern with whom he deals."

Just why men in such a position will continue to express such views is passing strange. They may be experts in railroad management but they are certainly inexpert in appealing to the public, and the fact is that, in spite of Mr. Storey's statement that what the railroads do with their surplus is no concern of the shippers, the shipper does not concede that this is true.

Perhaps Mr. Storey fails to see that the shipper provides this surplus, that he is compelled to provide it because the railroads have a monopoly on transportation, and that he has little to say relative to the freight rates which are fixed by the railroads and the Interstate Commerce Commission, and that the railroads are not free to fix their rates but are subject to the will of a body which functions by the will of the government of the United States.

There are men who live in the past. They think in terms of the past. They refuse to see what the public has seen for some time, which is, that the railroads of the United States are a public utility and that the shippers and the public they serve have something to say about the service rendered, whether the railroads like it or not. Such men will not see that the United States makes possible this surplus, that the United States is the home of over 110,000,000 people who are the United States and without whom the railroads would not be. The public the railroads serve has a right to say something about the servant they employ and about the income to be paid to this servant.

But it may be said that while this is true the public has nothing to do with the way the servant spends the income. This is hardly true for large employers, including the railroads, refuse to employ men in certain capacities who use liquor and they backed with all their might the eighteenth amendment which has something to do with how their employees spend their wages. The fact is that there is a growing consciousness that corporations do not exist of their own right or for their own ends. Many who believe that the railroads should have reasonable freedom in working out their own problems will resent Mr. Storey's statement of the case as he sees it. The freedom of the railroads to do anything depends upon the United States of America and the shippers are one part of the United States and the public are the United States and can decide to allow the railroads a certain freedom or can make them slaves. To challenge this right is quite dangerous at a time like this when many would like to show the railroads just what their rights are in a nation where the people rule.

50 QUACK DOCTORS SOUGHT BY POLICE

WERE GROUND OUT BY A FAKE MEDICAL DIPLOMA FACTORY

(By United Press)

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 23.—The extraordinary grand jury investigating the medical diploma fraud is to reconvene here Monday after causing the state health department to revoke licenses of more than fifty quack physicians claiming graduation from the College of Physicians and Surgeons at St. Louis, Mo.

Meantime, detectives continued their search for Dr. George M. Sutcliffe, former practitioner at Unionville, wanted on a charge of manslaughter in connection with the death of a patient he treated.

"INTER-CHAIR SYSTEM" BETWEEN QUACK DOCTORS

Hartford, Conn., Nov. 23.—States Attorney Hugh M. Alcorn today was endeavoring to ascertain whether there is an "inter-chair system" in operation between quack doctors of Connecticut and New York. He plans to confer with District Attorney Jacob Banton in New York with regard to this during the next few days. Alcorn was said to have declared that although Dr. George Sutcliffe for whom a warrant has been issued had not yet been definitely located, he hoped to produce him before the grand jury when it reconvened Monday to conduct its inquiry into operations by alleged charlatans in his state.

ICY WASTES OF NORTH STILL CALL TO DR. NANSEN

(By United Press)

Washington, Nov. 23.—The lure of the northern ice wastes is stronger today in the heart of Dr. Fridtjof Nansen, famous Norwegian explorer, than his high position of world-wide fame as an administrator, relief worker, humanitarian, Noble peace prize winner and world peace advocate. If life were only a little longer, the intrepid Arctic explorer would go back North.

Nansen, who started here an American tour in behalf of European relief and world peace, wistfully voiced the wish that he might once again brave the perils and hardships of the Arctic night, where many years ago he won fame.

He preferred to talk of Arctic exploration than of world conditions. The spare, blue-eyed, vigorous old man predicted success for Raold Amundsen in the effort to fly in an airplane to the North Pole.

Amundsen, he declared, will succeed if he is not forced to land on the ice in a fog. The trip, if made in one flight, however, will accomplish little, in Nansen's opinion, because it will furnish no scientific data.

Amundsen will be able to distinguish land and sea, he declared, but expressed his belief that Amundsen would find, like he himself had done aboard the Fram long ago, nothing but deep sea, possibly dotted with islands.

Nansen, who is 62, said regretfully that he will probably never be able to go back to the Arctic, which threw its spell over him so long ago. As a hobby, however, he has adopted a study of the world's oceans, which he pursues in the intervals when the League of Nations is not demanding his services as a relief commissioner.

Why Do Girls Go Into Pictures?

Among the stock questions that a screen actress is called upon to answer at least once a day is: "Why do girls want to go into pictures?"

Lovely Corinne Griffith, who is starred in the screen version of "The Common Law," which will be seen here at the New Park on Saturday and Sunday, says that this is a very natural inclination and a difficult thing to suppress.

"Why did Lady Duff Gordon, with all her millions, become a modiste?" asks Miss Griffith. "Why did Laura Jean Libbey write novels? Why did Helen Gould take up settlement work? Why does Neysa McMein paint pictures? Why is Blossom Seeley a dancer? Why is Eva Tanguay a singer? The answer, my dear lady, is in all cases the same—because they couldn't help it.

New Olds Six Records

San Francisco, Nov. 22.—"Cannon-Ball" Baker is indicating that he is an emphatic believer in the creed, "Make hay while the sun shines."

Arriving in sunny California two weeks ago, Baker finished history's first high gear transcontinental run, driving a stock model Oldsmobile "Six" 3,674 miles from New York to Los Angeles after low, second and reverse gears had been removed from the transmission. During this run Baker averaged 28.8 miles on each gallon of regular commercial fuel and used but a trifle over one pint of lubricating oil.

Still not satisfied in proving the ability of his Oldsmobile "Six" to perform under all conditions, Baker took it out on the Beverly Hills speedway and drove it several laps at a speed of 68 miles per hour, checked by "Jimmy" Murphy, famous "AAA" driver, newspapermen and motorcycle officers. All this was done without making any adjustments or changes whatever on the car after the coast-to-coast journey in "high."

Only a few days after the record breaking feat at Beverly Hills, Baker made another startling road performance with his Oldsmobile when he drove from Los Angeles to San Francisco, 481 miles, in a driving time of 10 hours and 49 minutes and an elapsed time of 11 hours and 39 minutes, averaging 44.47 miles per hour over the entire distance.

This run breaks all former stock car achievements inasmuch as it was made over the Ridge Route with a detour by way of San Jose. The car made the trip also without grinding the engine valves or making any changes since the transcontinental run and Beverly Hill speed test.

Arriving in sunny California two weeks ago, Baker finished history's first high gear transcontinental run, driving a stock model Oldsmobile "Six" 3,674 miles from New York to Los Angeles after low, second and reverse gears had been removed from the transmission. During this run Baker averaged 28.8 miles on each gallon of regular commercial fuel and used but a trifle over one pint of lubricating oil.

Still not satisfied in proving the ability of his Oldsmobile "Six" to perform under all conditions, Baker took it out on the Beverly Hills speedway and drove it several laps at a speed of 68 miles per hour, checked by "Jimmy" Murphy, famous "AAA" driver, newspapermen and motorcycle officers. All this was done without making any adjustments or changes whatever on the car after the coast-to-coast journey in "high."

Only a few days after the record breaking feat at Beverly Hills, Baker made another startling road performance with his Oldsmobile when he drove from Los Angeles to San Francisco, 481 miles, in a driving time of 10 hours and 49 minutes and an elapsed time of 11 hours and 39 minutes, averaging 44.47 miles per hour over the entire distance.

This run breaks all former stock car achievements inasmuch as it was made over the Ridge Route with a detour by way of San Jose. The car made the trip also without grinding the engine valves or making any changes since the transcontinental run and Beverly Hill speed test.

TWIN OAK FARM NOW DAIRY FARM

Property of Late J. C. Barber Now Taken Over by His Son F. L. Barber

GUERNSEYS PREDOMINATE

Fine Bull Bought From Dr. Graves' Herd at Aitkin to Head Twin Oak Farm Herd

Twin Oak Farm, the property of the late J. C. Barber, has been taken over by his son, F. L. Barber, and is being converted into a dairy farm of the highest standard.

J. H. Drake, father-in-law of Mr. Barber, has been staying at the farm for some time, and many changes have been made there under his supervision. The late J. C. Barber was a breeder of Shorthorn cattle. Under the new regime, a straight dairy farm is in the making. Some pure-bred Guernseys have been purchased including a very fine bull from the Dr. Graves herd at Aitkin, to head the new Twin Oak's herd.

All of the cattle have recently undergone the intradermal tuberculin test, this being the initial test towards establishing an accredited herd. All of the animals were pronounced healthy by the attending veterinarian.

The farm supervisor is Arthur Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Adolph Johnson, who under the direction of Mr. Drake is making extensive improvements in the farm buildings. The stables have been remodeled to suit the new conditions, "Jamesway" systems of ventilation have been installed, new arrangements of the stanchions and maternity stalls have been made, and all of the interiors of the stables painted white.

Woman Natural Leader Of Man, Says Van Dyke Scouting Feminist Era

Rev. Dr. Henry Van Dyke, former U. S. Minister to the Netherlands and a daily contributor to many papers sees no feminist era and scouts the sex parity idea. Speaking before the undergraduates of Princeton, Dr. Van Dyke said that womes are naturally better than men, but are worse artificially. Woman suffrage, he added, is not likely to become epochal.

DISTRICT COURT PROCEEDINGS

Jury Deliberates at 3 P. M. Friday on Case of State Against David Barry

INVOLVES LIQUOR CHARGE

Olaf Fahlstrom Case is the Next on Call of the Calendar

In district court Friday, the case or the state against David Barry, arraigned on an information charging the sale of intoxicating liquor, went to the jury about three o'clock.

Witnesses for the state were E. J. Thibadeau, Ben Slonin, Theodore Nesheim, Harry Gaskill and John Ladeaux. Witnesses called by the defense included David Barry, Mr. Peters and Mr. Johnson. The state called in rebuttal Dwight McFerran, Glen Schnell, John Ladeaux and Mrs. Ralston. John Barry was called in rebuttal by defense.

Ryan and Ryan are attorneys for Barry and County Atorney Walter F. Wieland is prosecuting the case.

The next case on the calendar is that of the state against Olaf Fahlstrom. Fahlstrom is charged with manufacturing intoxicating liquor.

George Swanson charged with the sale of intoxicating liquor, who earlier in this term of court plead not guilty, asked permission to withdraw this plea and enter his plea of guilty, which was granted by the court. Swanson was charged with selling liquor to E. J. Thibadeau and Ben Slonin.

"Children of Dust," Staged by the Whittier Parent-Teachers Association

"Children of Dust" the benefit picture to be staged by the Whittier parent-teachers association at the New Park theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, November 28th and 29th is said to be truly a page from the book of life.

It is a human story of real people. The story is of Terwilliger and the lad's love for Helen Livermore, a wealthy girl. He has a rival, Harvey Raymond, another wealthy child.

Old Archer, caretaker of a New York estate, plays an important part in the romance. While the story opens with several childhood incidents which have a vital bearing on the tale, most of the action takes place twelve years later. In the sacrifices for love, and in the romance, Borzage its director, mirrors the very essence of life.

The picture throbs with action comedy and the wistfullness of human incidents which make life worth while. Borzage has instilled into "Children of Dust," which is a First National picture, all of the pathos humor and romance of "Humoresque" in greater measure. An evening of perfect entertainment is assured all those who attend.

Johnny Walker is well cast as Terwilliger, while Pauline Garon and Lloyd Hughes live their respective parts as Helen Livermore and Harvey Raymond. Bert Woodruff is superb as Old Archer, and Frankie Lee Josephine Adair and Newton Hall splendidly portray the leading characters as children.

The proceds of this feature picture will be used by the Whittier Parent-Teachers Association in a most worthy cause.

DRAMA SECTION MEETS

Business & Professional Women Hold Interesting Meeting on Monday Night

The drama section of the B. P. W. had a very interesting meeting Monday night. The class is growing in size and hopes to increase more as the weeks go by. The evening was devoted to Irish plays by Lady Gregory. Mary Walsh read "Spreading the News," a delightful satire on gossips, telling how a few remarks, a pitchfork, a song about the Red Haired Man's wife and a deaf old lady startled a whole village into horror struck gossip about a dead man in the meadow, and his murderer's elopement to America with the murdered man's wife. When the murderer and his victim appear, both hale and hearty, you get a clever situation. Miss Walsh is Irish herself and so, very naturally, was able to give the play that subtle Irish touch.

"The Rising of the Moon," read by Elizabeth Walsh, concerned three policemen in the Sinn Fein period and a fugitive from justice, a very important plotter and organizer, who plays upon the sympathy of the sergeant and his love for the cause, even tho he had now joined the "Force." He lets the fugitive slip thru his fingers to safety and thereby loses the hundred pound reward offered. There are many clever touches and much amusing dialog, ending with the sergeant gazing sadly at the offer of reward and saying, "Now I wonder if I'm as big a fool as I think I am." This was very well read. It was considered advisable to change the schedule to other Monday's, and so interested was the class that they voted to have another meeting next Monday, rather than postpone the next meeting for three weeks. Beginning next Monday, the class will meet every two weeks. The class is to have the very great pleasure of hearing Mrs. Burnett at some time in the future, and hopes to present a play from its own dramatic midst. Next Monday a one act play of Barries will be read.

BRAINERD'S ODDEST STORIES OF TODAY

Clarence Hall, son of W. J. Hall, claims to have caught a fish under rather peculiar circumstances recently.

At Shamineau lake recently young Hall saw a large pike struggling in shallow water near the shore, and wading out caught the fish. In its mouth the pike had a large sucker that it was attempting to swallow, but its prey was too big a mouthful. Mr. Hall states that the pike weighed 8½ pounds.

ASKS SPORTSMEN FOR CO-OPERATION

Chief Game Warden D. A. Peterson Has an Appeal in "Fins, Feathers and Furs"

MORE DEPUTIES NEEDED

Claims at Least 150 Paid Wardens Are Needed in State for Game Supervision

In the current issue of "Fins, Feathers and Fur," the official organ of the Minnesota Game and Fish Department, D. A. Peterson, chief Game Warden of the state, writes the following article:

Minnesota, with an area of 84,287 square miles, of which 5,637 square miles is water; with its heavily forested land in the northern part of the state, where a true sportsman can get the limit of game and fish, and the only state that has its 10,000 lakes, the play ground of the nation, has only sixty paid game wardens, who work day and night to protect our game and fish. We should have at the very least 150 paid wardens.

You true blue sportsman, it's time that you, every one of you, get your shoulders to the wheel, to give the Game and Fish Department a lift, to get legislation, some action, so the department can put on more men to help enforce our game and fish laws.

At the present time we are arranging the territories of each and every game warden to try to make everything work out to a better advantage to all concerned. At that, the 60 wardens can only attend to this work in a way.

I will say that I insist and have the backing of our game and fish commissioner, that every one of the game wardens be men of good reputation, good honest men, men that will be courteous and obliging, ready at all times to give any information in regard to the territory they work in.

I want them to be honest men that the state of Minnesota can say, "That man is a game warden, and I am proud of him," or "You can depend upon what he tells you."

The game and fish department will do all it can to get good, honest men that will enforce our game and fish laws to the letter, as this is the only way we can have the hearty cooperation of every true sportsman. A sportsman, I am sure, would like to shake hands with every real game sport in Minnesota. Let's all get acquainted and work hand in hand for the better protection of our game and fish.

Every year camping parties are growing thicker in the woods, and one sees many a camp fire crowded with hunters and fishermen. The women are out, too, because Minnesota's air never worked a hardship on any of the fair sex. All hotels and resorts are crowded to the limit. The roads are in excellent shape and it is easy to run your car with no tire and engine trouble.

My slogan is: 150 paid game wardens for the state of Minnesota.

DISTRICT COURT PROCEEDINGS

Jury Deliberates at 3 P. M. Friday on Case of State Against David Barry

INVOLVES LIQUOR CHARGE

Olaf Fahlstrom Case is the Next on Call of the Calendar

In district court Friday, the case or the state against David Barry, arraigned on an information charging the sale of intoxicating liquor, went to the jury about three o'clock.

Witnesses for the state were E. J. Thibadeau, Ben Slonin, Theodore Nesheim, Harry Gaskill and John Ladeaux. Witnesses called by the defense included David Barry, Mr. Peters and Mr. Johnson. The state called in rebuttal Dwight McFerran, Glen Schnell, John Ladeaux and Mrs. Ralston. John Barry was called in rebuttal by defense.

Ryan and Ryan are attorneys for Barry and County Atorney Walter F. Wieland is prosecuting the case.

The next case on the calendar is that of the state against Olaf Fahlstrom. Fahlstrom is charged with manufacturing intoxicating liquor.

George Swanson charged with the sale of intoxicating liquor, who earlier in this term of court plead not guilty, asked permission to withdraw this plea and enter his plea of guilty, which was granted by the court. Swanson was charged with selling liquor to E. J. Thibadeau and Ben Slonin.

"Children of Dust," Staged by the Whittier Parent-Teachers Association

"Children of Dust" the benefit picture to be staged by the Whittier parent-teachers association at the New Park theatre on Wednesday and Thursday, November 28th and 29th is said to be truly a page from the book of life.

It is a human story of real people. The story is of Terwilliger and the lad's love for Helen Livermore, a wealthy girl. He has a rival, Harvey Raymond, another wealthy child.

Old Archer, caretaker of a New York estate, plays an important part in the romance. While the story opens with several childhood incidents which have a vital bearing on the tale, most of the action takes place twelve years later. In the sacrifices for love, and in the romance, Borzage its director, mirrors the very essence of life.

The picture throbs with action comedy and the wistfullness of human incidents which make life worth while. Borzage has instilled into "Children of Dust," which is a First National picture, all of the pathos humor and romance of "Humoresque" in greater measure. An evening of perfect entertainment is assured all those who attend.

Johnny Walker is well cast as Terwilliger, while Pauline Garon and Lloyd Hughes live their respective parts as Helen Livermore and Harvey Raymond. Bert Woodruff is superb as Old Archer, and Frankie Lee Josephine Adair and Newton Hall splendidly portray the leading characters as children.

The proceds of this feature picture will be used by the Whittier Parent-Teachers Association in a most worthy cause.

DRAMA SECTION MEETS

Business & Professional Women Hold Interesting Meeting on Monday Night

The drama section of the B. P. W. had a very interesting meeting Monday night. The class is growing in size and hopes to increase more as the weeks go by. The evening was devoted to Irish plays by Lady Gregory. Mary Walsh read "Spreading the News," a delightful satire on gossips, telling how a few remarks, a pitchfork, a song about the Red Haired Man's wife and a deaf old lady startled a whole village into horror struck gossip about a dead man in the meadow, and his murderer's elopement to America with the murdered man's wife. When the murderer and his victim appear, both hale and hearty, you get a clever situation. Miss Walsh is Irish herself and so, very naturally, was able to give the play that subtle Irish touch.

"The Rising of the Moon," read by Elizabeth Walsh, concerned three policemen in the Sinn Fein period and a fugitive from justice, a very important plotter and organizer, who plays upon the sympathy of the sergeant and his love for the cause, even tho he had now joined the "Force." He lets the fugitive slip thru his fingers to safety and thereby loses the hundred pound reward offered. There are many clever touches and much amusing dialog, ending with the sergeant gazing sadly at the offer of reward and saying, "Now I wonder if I'm as big a fool as I think I am." This was very well read. It was considered advisable to change the schedule to other Monday's, and so interested was the class that they voted to have another meeting next Monday, rather than postpone the next meeting for three weeks. Beginning next Monday, the class will meet every two weeks. The class is to have the very great pleasure of hearing Mrs. Burnett at some time in the future, and hopes to present a play from its own dramatic midst. Next Monday a one act play of Barries will be read.

THIRD DOWN! ONE YARD TO GO!

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Nov. 23.—Football is on the third down tomorrow with one yard to go. The major teams that will not buck the last game over the line tomorrow will have their last down in the Thanksgiving Day games on next Thursday.

Activity in the east is almost entirely confined to the Yale-Harvard and the Army-Navy games and it is just as well that the schedule for the day is light, as there is hardly enough room for those two big classics of the season.

Yale and Harvard will play before 70,000 spectators in the Harvard stadium at Cambridge and the Army and Navy will battle before 65,000 in the Polo Grounds here.

The crowds that will be packed in for both games will be only a small part of the mob outside the games that would be looking on if they could find a place or a ticket.

Yale's return to the old days of great teams has greatly revived interest in the battle between the two ranking members of the "Big Three."

In the past three years, the Yale-Harvard game to the public has just been a game with a lot of tradition behind it and a game that presented an opportunity to display a high social position by getting hold of a ticket and boasting about it.

But with Yale standing for the championship of the east and the word going around in Yale circles that Tad Jones' team will try to give Harvard the worst beating in its history, has aroused great interest.

For some reason, large numbers of easterners like to see Harvard beaten, and while Yale is not the most popular university in the east, part of the public is behind any team that looks like a winner over Harvard.

If Yale does not beat Harvard tomorrow, Yale will feel like quitting football, and the east probably will vote: "You should quit."

* * * * * * * * *

Among the 65,000 that will gather in the Brush stadium tomorrow will be only army and navy officers, ranking politicians from Washington, cadets and midshipmen and those who "know" army and navy officers, politicians or cadets and midshipmen well enough to pry a ticket away from them.

LODGE AND FULTON IN BOUT TONIGHT

HEAVY NETS TO BE FIXED TO RING TO CATCH FLYING BODIES IF THEY FALL OUT

Tinear Tompkins, who slings a wicked pen for the Minneapolis Journal, writes this fighting dope, under a Minneapolis date line:

Jack Williamson will act as the second judge tonight when Fred Fulton and Farmer Lodge meet at the Kenwood armory for the heavyweight championship of something.

George Sudheimer will sit across the ring from Williamson, also wearing the ermine, and Jimmy Potts will furnish the balance of the judicial dignity as referee.

Easy for Judges

If the big pelican from Rochester abolishes the giant grizzly from the St. Paul woods before the end of the 10th round or if Lodge performs similarly toward the hodcarrier, Judges Williamson and Sudheimer will have nothing to do but twirl their thumbs. Fans today marveled at the valor of the judges in accepting the jobs.

Many of the less valiant fans are seeking seats for the fight some distance from the ringside owing to the danger from the flying bodies.

Fire Chief Ringer may be asked to install some heavy life nets about the ring so as to prevent the gladiators falling through the floor into the basement where they might wreck some of George Leach's fieldpieces.

Matchmaker Billy B. Hoke had a head full of schemes today to prevent any such disaster. President Frank McCormick urged Hoke to leave no stone unturned to protect life and property if the big boys start tumbling out of the arena.

All the men who will figure in the 38 rounds of warfare are on the ground. There will be six fights in all on the card, many of which are exciting some interest despite the appeal of the main event.

Particular notice is being taken of the semiwindup, a 10 round go between Eddie Morris of Sioux City and Charley Long, Omaha Negro. Both men have advanced materially along the road to pugilistic fame and glory, and their meeting here will be one that has been wanted by the public for a long time.

Morris has shown in Minneapolis and St. Paul rings that he can and will fight. It will be the colored boy's first appearance here, but his work in Omaha and the far west has made him look like a comer. He gave a good account of himself in a no-decision fight with Morrie Schlaifer in his home town in the semiwindup to the recent Tiny Herman fight.

Fred Fulton was billed to do his final workout today at Potts and Lodge promised to do his stunts at the Gibbons temple of slug.

DENMARK PROTESTS PRO INFLUENCE IN OLYMPIC CONTESTS

Copenhagen, Nov. 23.—As a passive protest against increasing professionalism in international sport, the Danish Sporting union will not send a football team to the Olympic games in Paris next year. The Danish amateur soccer team, once Europe's finest, was this year defeated by the Norwegian and Swedish nationla teams. Because it believes amateur sports are being handicapped by professionalism, which it believes influences the Olympic games, Denmark is making this passive protest.

SIKI'S DEPARTURE DELAYED BY DEFEAT

New York, Nov. 23—Kid Norfolk's fists have dissuaded Battling Siki from returning immediately to Europe to move his family from Holland to France and the Senegalese now intends to remain in the United States for some time touring the interior and fighting all the opponents he can find, his manager, Bob Levy, announced today. Siki will rest a while before starting his tour.

UNDEFEATED HAWAII ELEVEN IN 'FRISCO

Claremont, Calif., Nov. 23.—The University of Hawaii football team, which has arrived in San Francisco from Honolulu to play Pomona college Thanksgiving day, is expected here, where Pomona is situated, to show some flashy playing. The Hawaiians have not been defeated this season and have rolled up 180 points against their opponents' 27.

Coach Otto Klum has brought a picturesquely international squad of 18, including, besides the Americans, two Hawaiian-Americans, one Hawaiian, one Chinese, a Negro, a Japanese and a Portuguese.

MICHIGAN-MINNESOTA CENTERS ATTENTION

Chicago, Nov. 23.—With Zuppke's powerful Illini practically considered victors over Ohio state tomorrow, interest in the football race in the Big Ten conference centered today on the game between Michigan and Minnesota.

Michigan, crippled and somewhat battered by a slurred end victory over Wisconsin last week, faces the hardest test of the season. Minnesota, led by the great triple attack of Martineau, hopes to dump the Wolverines from their position and tie with Illinois for the title.

Martineau, slight of build but fast and daring, is perhaps the greatest backfield in the middle west.

POULTRY

How Much Grain to Feed Hens of Various Breeds

Most people who are attempting to put the flock on a scientific basis are perplexed as to the amount of grain which they should feed to their hens. Some people feed by measure, others by "handfuls" and most people by guesswork.

Measure feeding is probably to be condemned more than any other method. Merely giving a quart pail of grain to the hens and letting it go at that is what causes so many poor flock records over the country. The hens should be fed all that they will consume, never by measure, yet measures can be used as an indication of the amount they are likely to require.

Morning feeding of grain should be just sufficient to get the hens busy. Oats make a good morning feed and one quart to a hundred hens will keep them busy most of the morning, but where a balanced grain and mash ration is being fed you will not want to disturb it by feeding oats alone in the morning. Feed a small quantity of the grain mixture you are using in the morning, only enough to get the hens working and give them all they want at night.

Experiments carried on by the federal poultry farm authorities have brought out some interesting figures as indicating how much grain and mash by weight is required for fowls per day. General-purpose fowls, such as Rocks, Reds and Wyandottes, require one quart of scratch grain and a quart and a half of mash per day for each 13 hens, or for each 16 hens of the smaller or egg breeds. This is at the rate of 7½ pounds each of grain and mash per day for 100 Leghorns and 9½ pounds of each to 100 general-purpose fowls. Hens having range consume 75 pounds of feed in a year, while the Leghorns consume 55 pounds in addition to the green food eaten.

Table Scraps Important Item for Small Flocks

Table scraps become an important item for a small flock, but are of little value for large numbers. The small flock will pay at all seasons, because the scraps lessen the cost of the food by permitting of the utilization of waste materials that would otherwise go into the slop barrel. For this reason every family should keep a few hens, even if but half a dozen, and especially the families that live in the suburbs of cities and towns, or who have a space that can be utilized for that purpose. The greatest obstacle is the attempt to keep too many. Be satisfied with a few, and the cost will be less and the result more satisfactory.

Turkeys in Confinement Need Careful Guarding

Those who grow turkeys in confinement must, of necessity, guard carefully against overfeeding throughout the summer, though in the absence of infection caused by the presence of adult birds, there seems to be comparatively little danger from blackhead at this time. Hopper-feeding of dry mash to birds in confinement has been found entirely safe at Purdue, where 60 were raised to the age of twelve weeks or more and a dozen raised to maturity, always in confinement. The dry mash, consisting of equal parts of bran and shorts, was kept before the turkeys in hoppers.

Roosts on Same Level Prevent Many Ailments

The old-time stepladder roost, with one round four or five feet from the floor and the others lower until the lowest is near the floor, takes up a large share of space in the poultry house, and is unserviceable, as the hens will instinctively go upon the high roosts in preference to the lower ones, some of the fowls being forced down while others are injured by jumping off in the morning. It is to high roosts that bumblefoot and lameness may be attributed, and it is cheaper to have low roosts, all on the same level, than to doctor fowls for lameness.

POULTRY NOTES

Proper feeds and feeding are the best "poultry tonics."

When the weather is favorable every chick should spend time on the ground each day.

REFUGEE MEAL FOR AMERICANS

Whole Country Asked to Adopt Orphanage Menu for Just One Sunday Dinner.

RELIEF HAS SAVED MILLION

People of All Nations Will Figuratively Gather Around Same Table as Practical Sign of Sympathy With Near East Sufferers.

How many comfortably fed, clothed and housed Americans will sit down to a Sunday dinner of rice, corn grits and soup—typical orphan fare—on December 2, as a practical test of the golden rule?

The question is asked today by Charles V. Vickrey, general secretary of Near East Relief, who is in charge of the plans for the general observance throughout the United States of "Golden Rule Sunday." In an interview, Mr. Vickrey said:

"If American people will renounce for one meal the food they are accustomed to eat, and contribute the difference in cost to the support of starving children in the near east, the situation in Greece, Armenia and Palestine will become infinitely more real to them.

"I have recently returned from several months in those countries. America is a name to conjure with there. Bitter reproaches are heard against nearly every other country, but none against us. That is because people realize that Americans have gone to them with a helping hand and a square deal, rather than with the mailed fist.

"America could well have afforded to have spent every penny of her relief funds as a long-sighted, cold-blooded business proposition. The goodwill that has resulted from relief work in the near east is of incalculable value. When these orphans we are caring for today grow to manhood, they will become the leaders of their nations and their eyes will turn toward America.

"At least a million persons in the near east would not be alive today had it not been for American aid. Even today, 100,000 persons are being cared for day to day by the Near East Relief, mostly women and children who would probably perish in a few days or weeks if the work ceased.

"Our workers are now concentrating not only on the physical care of our 50,000 orphans, but on their industrial training as well. At the age of 16, when an orphan leaves our care, he is equipped to enter some useful trade or business. In Narazeth there are boys working in our carpenter shop a few feet from the spot where Christ toiled. In Macedonia, hundreds of Greek orphans are learning farming in the atmosphere where Paul spent many years in establishing the first European churches.

"Five dollars a month provides food and physical necessities for an orphan, and $100 a year provides for his education as well. The observance of Golden Rule Sunday by a million American families will provide enough funds for thousands of orphans.

"When people break bread together, they become friends. On this International Golden Rule Sunday people of all nations figuratively will gather around the same table, partaking of the same food representing the menu which the unfortunate children of the near east hope, by the benevolence of the West, to eat 365 days in the year. But even this simple menu the orphans cannot have unless the rest of the world practices the Golden Rule."

THIS HEALING CREAM WILL STOP CATARRH

If your nostrils are clogged and your head stuffed because of catarrh or a cold, get Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this pure, antiseptic, germ destroying cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head and membranes. Instant relief.

How good it feels. Your head is clear. Your nostrils are open. You breathe freely. No more hawking or snuffling. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed up, choked up and miserable. Relief is sure.—Advt.

Bad Luck and the Devil Pursued Him

"I don't think any one has had more bad luck and sickness than I have. In 1905 I had two ribs, an arm and collar bone broken in a railroad accident. Then I had pneumonia. After recovering I crossed a pasture when a bull chased me, tossed me over the fence and broke my right leg. In 1910 I had typhoid fever; since then severe stomach and liver trouble, which no medicine or doctor touched until two years ago I got a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which proved the first ray of light in thirteen years." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. RUB RHEUMATIC PAIN FROM ACHING JOINTS

St. Jacob's Oil stops any pain, so when your back is sore and lame, or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest St. Jacob's Oil at any drug store, pour a little in your hand, and rub it right on your aching back; and by the time you count fifty the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless, and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica, backache or rheumatism so promptly. It never disappoints.—Adv

THIRD DOWN! ONE YARD TO GO!

By HENRY L. FARRELL
United Press Sports Editor

New York, Nov. 23.—Football is on the third down tomorrow with one yard to go. The major teams that will not buck the last game over the line tomorrow will have their last down in the Thanksgiving Day games on next Thursday.

Activity in the east is almost entirely confined to the Yale-Harvard and the Army-Navy games and it is just as well that the schedule for the day is light, as there is hardly enough room for those two big classics of the season.

Yale and Harvard will play before 70,000 spectators in the Harvard stadium at Cambridge and the Army and Navy will battle before 65,000 in the Polo Grounds here.

The crowds that will be packed in for both games will be only a small part of the mob outside the games that would be looking on if they could find a place or a ticket.

Yale's return to the old days of great teams has greatly revived interest in the battle between the two ranking members of the "Big Three."

In the past three years, the Yale-Harvard game to the public has just been a game with a lot of tradition behind it and a game that presented an opportunity to display a high social position by getting hold of a ticket and boasting about it.

But with Yale standing for the championship of the east and the word going around in Yale circles that Tad Jones' team will try to give Harvard the worst beating in its history, has aroused great interest.

For some reason, large numbers of easterners like to see Harvard beaten, and while Yale is not the most popular university in the east, part of the public is behind any team that looks like a winner over Harvard.

If Yale does not beat Harvard tomorrow, Yale will feel like quitting football, and the east probably will vote: "You should quit."

* * * * * * * * *

Among the 65,000 that will gather in the Brush stadium tomorrow will be only army and navy officers, ranking politicians from Washington, cadets and midshipmen and those who "know" army and navy officers, politicians or cadets and midshipmen well enough to pry a ticket away from them.

LODGE AND FULTON IN BOUT TONIGHT

HEAVY NETS TO BE FIXED TO RING TO CATCH FLYING BODIES IF THEY FALL OUT

Tinear Tompkins, who slings a wicked pen for the Minneapolis Journal, writes this fighting dope, under a Minneapolis date line:

Jack Williamson will act as the second judge tonight when Fred Fulton and Farmer Lodge meet at the Kenwood armory for the heavyweight championship of something.

George Sudheimer will sit across the ring from Williamson, also wearing the ermine, and Jimmy Potts will furnish the balance of the judicial dignity as referee.

Easy for Judges

If the big pelican from Rochester abolishes the giant grizzly from the St. Paul woods before the end of the 10th round or if Lodge performs similarly toward the hodcarrier, Judges Williamson and Sudheimer will have nothing to do but twirl their thumbs. Fans today marveled at the valor of the judges in accepting the jobs.

Many of the less valiant fans are seeking seats for the fight some distance from the ringside owing to the danger from the flying bodies.

Fire Chief Ringer may be asked to install some heavy life nets about the ring so as to prevent the gladiators falling through the floor into the basement where they might wreck some of George Leach's fieldpieces.

Matchmaker Billy B. Hoke had a head full of schemes today to prevent any such disaster. President Frank McCormick urged Hoke to leave no stone unturned to protect life and property if the big boys start tumbling out of the arena.

All the men who will figure in the 38 rounds of warfare are on the ground. There will be six fights in all on the card, many of which are exciting some interest despite the appeal of the main event.

Particular notice is being taken of the semiwindup, a 10 round go between Eddie Morris of Sioux City and Charley Long, Omaha Negro. Both men have advanced materially along the road to pugilistic fame and glory, and their meeting here will be one that has been wanted by the public for a long time.

Morris has shown in Minneapolis and St. Paul rings that he can and will fight. It will be the colored boy's first appearance here, but his work in Omaha and the far west has made him look like a comer. He gave a good account of himself in a no-decision fight with Morrie Schlaifer in his home town in the semiwindup to the recent Tiny Herman fight.

Fred Fulton was billed to do his final workout today at Potts and Lodge promised to do his stunts at the Gibbons temple of slug.

DENMARK PROTESTS PRO INFLUENCE IN OLYMPIC CONTESTS

Copenhagen, Nov. 23.—As a passive protest against increasing professionalism in international sport, the Danish Sporting union will not send a football team to the Olympic games in Paris next year. The Danish amateur soccer team, once Europe's finest, was this year defeated by the Norwegian and Swedish nationla teams. Because it believes amateur sports are being handicapped by professionalism, which it believes influences the Olympic games, Denmark is making this passive protest.

SIKI'S DEPARTURE DELAYED BY DEFEAT

New York, Nov. 23—Kid Norfolk's fists have dissuaded Battling Siki from returning immediately to Europe to move his family from Holland to France and the Senegalese now intends to remain in the United States for some time touring the interior and fighting all the opponents he can find, his manager, Bob Levy, announced today. Siki will rest a while before starting his tour.

UNDEFEATED HAWAII ELEVEN IN 'FRISCO

Claremont, Calif., Nov. 23.—The University of Hawaii football team, which has arrived in San Francisco from Honolulu to play Pomona college Thanksgiving day, is expected here, where Pomona is situated, to show some flashy playing. The Hawaiians have not been defeated this season and have rolled up 180 points against their opponents' 27.

Coach Otto Klum has brought a picturesquely international squad of 18, including, besides the Americans, two Hawaiian-Americans, one Hawaiian, one Chinese, a Negro, a Japanese and a Portuguese.

MICHIGAN-MINNESOTA CENTERS ATTENTION

Chicago, Nov. 23.—With Zuppke's powerful Illini practically considered victors over Ohio state tomorrow, interest in the football race in the Big Ten conference centered today on the game between Michigan and Minnesota.

Michigan, crippled and somewhat battered by a slurred end victory over Wisconsin last week, faces the hardest test of the season. Minnesota, led by the great triple attack of Martineau, hopes to dump the Wolverines from their position and tie with Illinois for the title.

Martineau, slight of build but fast and daring, is perhaps the greatest backfield in the middle west.

POULTRY

How Much Grain to Feed Hens of Various Breeds

Most people who are attempting to put the flock on a scientific basis are perplexed as to the amount of grain which they should feed to their hens. Some people feed by measure, others by "handfuls" and most people by guesswork.

Measure feeding is probably to be condemned more than any other method. Merely giving a quart pail of grain to the hens and letting it go at that is what causes so many poor flock records over the country. The hens should be fed all that they will consume, never by measure, yet measures can be used as an indication of the amount they are likely to require.

Morning feeding of grain should be just sufficient to get the hens busy. Oats make a good morning feed and one quart to a hundred hens will keep them busy most of the morning, but where a balanced grain and mash ration is being fed you will not want to disturb it by feeding oats alone in the morning. Feed a small quantity of the grain mixture you are using in the morning, only enough to get the hens working and give them all they want at night.

Experiments carried on by the federal poultry farm authorities have brought out some interesting figures as indicating how much grain and mash by weight is required for fowls per day. General-purpose fowls, such as Rocks, Reds and Wyandottes, require one quart of scratch grain and a quart and a half of mash per day for each 13 hens, or for each 16 hens of the smaller or egg breeds. This is at the rate of 7½ pounds each of grain and mash per day for 100 Leghorns and 9½ pounds of each to 100 general-purpose fowls. Hens having range consume 75 pounds of feed in a year, while the Leghorns consume 55 pounds in addition to the green food eaten.

Table Scraps Important Item for Small Flocks

Table scraps become an important item for a small flock, but are of little value for large numbers. The small flock will pay at all seasons, because the scraps lessen the cost of the food by permitting of the utilization of waste materials that would otherwise go into the slop barrel. For this reason every family should keep a few hens, even if but half a dozen, and especially the families that live in the suburbs of cities and towns, or who have a space that can be utilized for that purpose. The greatest obstacle is the attempt to keep too many. Be satisfied with a few, and the cost will be less and the result more satisfactory.

Turkeys in Confinement Need Careful Guarding

Those who grow turkeys in confinement must, of necessity, guard carefully against overfeeding throughout the summer, though in the absence of infection caused by the presence of adult birds, there seems to be comparatively little danger from blackhead at this time. Hopper-feeding of dry mash to birds in confinement has been found entirely safe at Purdue, where 60 were raised to the age of twelve weeks or more and a dozen raised to maturity, always in confinement. The dry mash, consisting of equal parts of bran and shorts, was kept before the turkeys in hoppers.

Roosts on Same Level Prevent Many Ailments

The old-time stepladder roost, with one round four or five feet from the floor and the others lower until the lowest is near the floor, takes up a large share of space in the poultry house, and is unserviceable, as the hens will instinctively go upon the high roosts in preference to the lower ones, some of the fowls being forced down while others are injured by jumping off in the morning. It is to high roosts that bumblefoot and lameness may be attributed, and it is cheaper to have low roosts, all on the same level, than to doctor fowls for lameness.

THIS HEALING CREAM WILL STOP CATARRH

If your nostrils are clogged and your head stuffed because of catarrh or a cold, get Ely's Cream Balm at any drug store. Apply a little of this pure, antiseptic, germ destroying cream into your nostrils and let it penetrate through every air passage of your head and membranes. Instant relief.

How good it feels. Your head is clear. Your nostrils are open. You breathe freely. No more hawking or snuffling. Head colds and catarrh yield like magic. Don't stay stuffed up, choked up and miserable. Relief is sure.—Advt.

Bad Luck and the Devil Pursued Him

"I don't think any one has had more bad luck and sickness than I have. In 1905 I had two ribs, an arm and collar bone broken in a railroad accident. Then I had pneumonia. After recovering I crossed a pasture when a bull chased me, tossed me over the fence and broke my right leg. In 1910 I had typhoid fever; since then severe stomach and liver trouble, which no medicine or doctor touched until two years ago I got a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy, which proved the first ray of light in thirteen years." It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded. Johnson's Pharmacy and leading druggists in every town.—Advt.

RUB RHEUMATIC PAIN FROM ACHING JOINTS

St. Jacob's Oil stops any pain, so when your back is sore and lame, or lumbago, sciatica or rheumatism has you stiffened up, don't suffer! Get a small trial bottle of old, honest St. Jacob's Oil at any drug store, pour a little in your hand, and rub it right on your aching back; and by the time you count fifty the soreness and lameness is gone.

Don't stay crippled! This soothing, penetrating oil needs to be used only once. It takes the pain right out and ends the misery. It is magical, yet absolutely harmless, and doesn't burn the skin.

Nothing else stops lumbago, sciatica, backache or rheumatism so promptly. It never disappoints.—Adv
